

When Kids Come Out

A four session class will meet at the
Worthington United Methodist Church
600 High Street, Worthington
Each Wednesday, April 11 thru May 2
7:00 pm to 8:30 pm

When a son or daughter comes out to his/her/their parents as lesbian, gay, bisexual, or transgender, the family will experience new challenges and opportunities, especially as people of faith

In a safe setting, the following topics will be addressed in addition to concerns and questions that parents and family members bring to the group:

1. How do I/we provide support and encouragement to my/our child who has come out as lesbian, gay, bisexual, or transgender?
2. How do I/we navigate relationships in my/our local congregation after my/our child has come out?
3. How do I/we come out as parent(s) of an LGBT child to other family members and friends, and those in the church?

The Rev. Jim Waugh, retired pastor in the West OH Conference of the United Methodist Church, will lead the group. Jim and his wife, Carol, have an adult daughter, Lisa, who came out to them several years ago.

Parking is available at the church. Look for signs directing you to the “Kids Coming Out” class at the church.
